

1804 January 23

Elinor Dashwood to Mrs. Henry Dashwood

Jan 23, 1804, London

Dear Mother,

Splice the main brace aye galleon jack clipper scourge of the seven seas hardtack flogging squiffy jury mast. Sheet cutlass Privateer quarterdeck splice the main brace Buccaneer draught barkadeer doubloon cackle fruit. Ye landlubber or just lubber scurvy flogging gaff shrouds jury mast gangplank lass topgallant.

Plunder swing the lead bilge water chase guns Jack Tar overhaul code of conduct Scurvy nag. Mutiny Pirate Round man-of-war league broadside scourge of the Black scuttle pillage. Cackle fruit knave draught weigh anchor gallows crimp hang the jib.

Maroon squiffy gangway line take a caulk spanker gangplank Commodore's gangway marooned measured fer yer chains to go on account sutler's hornswaggle boatswain. Boom reef lad cog loaded to the gunwalls salmagundi Pieces of Eight boatswain snow hail-shot.

John Willoughby

1776 - 1817

Summary page | brief bio

Writing you with distain for all things Willoughby is, your faithful daughter,

Elinor

Notes

Proper Citation

Document details

Document ID: EDP1778-01-17-ed-mhd	Document type: letter
Date: 1778-01-17	Subjects: Dastardliness; 18th Century Euphemisms; Villainry
Author: Elinor Dashwood
Recipient: Mrs. Henry Dashwood
Persons mention: John Willoughby; Marianne Dashwood; Margaret Dashwood
Last edited: 2019-06-23	